

THIS TIME THE CROWN

BY: BARABBAS

THIS BOOKLET IS PROVIDED FREE OF CHARGE AND IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST BY THE RESTORED ASSEMBLY OF ELOHIM®. It is made possible by the voluntary, freely given tithes and offerings of the members of the Assembly and others who have elected to support the ongoing work of the Assembly. Contributions are welcome and gratefully accepted. Those who wish to voluntarily aid and support this Restorative Work of Yahweh around the Aryan World are gladly welcomed as co-workers in this major effort to not only preach but to teach the Good News of the Holy Scriptures to ALL the ARYAN NATIONS.

Copyright © 2009, 2012, 2018 The Restored Assembly of Elohim®
ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

Proudly Printed in the United States of America

THIS TIME THE CROWN

Occasionally some stupid Judeo-Christian Code person complains that there is too much hate in the Identity message. Well, to be quite honest, there is some hate involved in it. But why not? Hate is defined in my dictionary as, "...to regard with a strong dislike." And what is wrong with that? I can think of a lot of things for which I have a strong dislike. Can't you? But, you see, the enemies of our race are using the word "hate" as a Pavlovian type of trigger-word.

When people hear the word "hate", they experience an automatic and highly emotional reaction. Instead of understanding the word in the dimension of its proper meaning, their minds immediately conjure up all kinds of pictures of blind, stupid, cruel and unnecessary viciousness. Such concepts now automatically come to our minds, as the result of the brainwashing to which we have for so many years been systematically subjected, even though the word "hate" really has no such meaning at all.

Racial Instincts vs Rationalism

The purpose of this brainwashing has been to replace normal, healthy racial instincts with rationalism. We need not go too deeply into this, but, basically, instinct is defined as "... an unbroken pattern of activity and response common to a given biological unit, urged or animated from within or filled with some active principle." Whereas, rationalism is "...the principle or habit of accepting reason as the supreme authority, in matters of opinion, belief or conduct – the doctrine that human reason, unaided by divine revelation, is an adequate or the sole guide to all attainable religious truth."

In bygone days our people didn't have to argue, debate or discuss an issue. They didn't need "meaningful dialogues" to reach a responsible solution; they knew instinctively what was right and what was wrong. They knew it was wrong to tolerate subversion, perversion, mongrelization and crime. They knew that murderers should die and robbers should be jailed; it didn't require reason or rationalism to figure it out. But today we weep for criminals instead of the victims, we extend equality to inferiors and give aid to our enemies, because our instinctive will to resist evil is gone!

Satanic Churches

Our will to resist evil has been largely destroyed by the words "love" and "hate". Every day we are told to love (and not resist) every evil thing imaginable, even the most vile piece of human garbage that creeps or crawls across the earth's surface. And we are told not to hate anything and anybody, because hate is a terrible thing. What utter nonsense! Oddly enough, the chief purveyors of these absurdities are the so-called Christian churches. Well, let's face it: There aren't any true Christian churches anymore, except for the few "Identity" ones. The denominational churches are all nothing but Judeo-Christian Code organizations, with heavy emphasis on the Judeo. The Jews and their proselytes control or strongly influence all of them. What is being taught as Christianity, today, is Jewish Rationalism, or Judaism. So why call these churches "Christian" at all? Do they acknowledge who Jesus is? Most of them don't even do that, although demons do. (See Mark 5:7 and James 2:19.) Shall we therefore call demons Christian, because they know who Christ is? Satan knows very well who Jesus is. Should we therefore call Satan a Christian? How absurd!

A true Christian must teach the doctrine of Jesus Christ: what Jesus taught. (1 Timothy 6:3.) To acknowledge who Jesus is, but to teach a contrary doctrine, is evil. (II John 1:9.) And that is precisely what these so-called Christian churches are doing. It will be a great day when they are all destroyed and our people are freed from ecclesiastical bondage.

Christian Masochism

The Jews and their proselytes have done a remarkable job of making Christians into doormats. Most Christians are so busy mentally flagellating themselves for being rude, thinking an unkind thought or saying a bad word, etcetera, that they have not noticed the complete conquest of the Kingdom of God by the Jews. Our race is loaded down with guilt feelings over trivia, while in the name of "love" we do many things we should feel guilty about. We have whipped ourselves into weak, spineless masochists, and this feeling of guilt has been drummed into our race from the very pulpits of our churches.

Devils in the pulpit have convinced our people that they should pay no attention to the affairs of the Kingdom, but just worry about getting into heaven, by being good. "Just be good and everything will be all right." Well, everything is not alright, is it? But this nonsense has served Satan and his children remarkably well. Our race has forsaken its divine mission to build the Kingdom of God right here on this earth. And remember that a kingdom consists of a King, His ministers, His armies, His laws, courts and government. But in this age of Orwellian double-think, if you piously stand and do nothing while our people are being murdered, mongrelized and persecuted by the millions, that is love! But if you fight for your Father in heaven and for His children on earth, to build and protect His Kingdom, that is hate! Incredible! But this is a classic example of the triumph of Jew rationalism over natural instincts.

Is Hatred Ever Pleasing To God?

Most of us don't seem to understand that we are supposed to hate evil. The Scriptures declare: "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge" (Proverbs 1:7). And what is fear of the Lord? "The fear of the Lord is to hate evil" (Proverbs 8:13). Until our people understand this, they will not receive the knowledge they so desperately need in this hour. David said, "Ye that love the Lord, hate evil" (Psalm 97:10). What about the people that do evil things? David said, "Do I not hate them, O Lord, that hate thee? And am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee? I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies" (Psalm 139:21,22). Also, "I have hated the congregation of evil doers: and will not sit with the wicked" (Psalm 26:5).

The Judeo-Christian Code people will no doubt say that David should not have said these things. But you will recall that David was known as a man after God's own heart (1 Samuel 13:14). And the Scriptures make this declaration about David: "And David behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and the Lord was with him" (1 Samuel 18:14). Is hate godlike? David said of God, "...thou hatest all workers of iniquity" (Psalm 5:5). In Psalm 53:5, he speaks of God despising workers of iniquity. How then can our people believe that we are supposed to love wicked people? Indeed, Jehu asked King Jehoshaphat that very question: "Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the Lord? Therefore is wrath upon thee from before the Lord" (II Chronicles 19:2).

We are not supposed to love wicked people. In Proverbs 13:5 we read "...a wicked man is loathsome, and cometh to shame." In Psalm 11:5 David declared that the Lord's very soul hated the wicked. God said in Malachi 1:2,3, "...yet I loved Jacob, and I hated Esau..." The Apostle Paul confirmed God's hatred of Esau in Romans 9:13, which says, "As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated."

The Scriptures tell of many things that are an abomination to the Lord. An abomination is an object of hatred. The 6th chapter of Proverbs lists seven things that God hates: "a proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, an heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief, a false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren" (Proverbs 6:16-19). It just occurs to me that this is the best description of Jews I have ever read! Should we therefore hate Jews? Certainly we should. And we should also remember that it was God Himself who placed this hatred in our hearts. In Genesis 3:15 God said to the serpent, Satan: "... I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed..." Check your dictionary or thesaurus: enmity means hatred! It was God who put hatred between our race and the Jew serpent race. Although our hatred of the Jew is a racial instinct, this instinct has been greatly dulled by Jewish rationalism in these latter days, while the Jew's hatred of the White race has continued with an intensity that has never diminished.

The more stupid of our race will say that this approval of hatred is just in the Old Testament, that the New Testament is different. But they are mistaken. The Apostle Paul admonished the early Christians to "...abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good" (Romans 12:9). He also said that Christ "...hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity" (Hebrews 1:9). Our Savior said, "So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate" (Revelation 2:15). In Revelation 2:6 He also said, "But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate." These passages are quoted here, in order to show the inordinately thick-witted of our race that Christ of the New Testament also hated many things. In fact, hatred of some things and even some people is often most commendable.

Should We Love Everybody?

The Judeo-Christian Code morons insist that we love everybody in the world. But the Scriptures declare: "Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God” (James 4:4). “If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him” (I John 2:15). I am sick of these “beautiful people” who love everything they are not supposed to love, mainly, to give themselves an appearance of goodness in the sight of others. It is sometimes said that these people occasionally do some good. Well, a poisonous viper devours rodents and does some good, but I don't want any part of one – do you? This is what the Scriptures have to say about such people: “For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works” (II Corinthians 11:13-15).

About these so-called righteous people, Jesus said, “Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? And in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity” (Matthew 7:22-23). If someone is shocked to learn that you hate some things and some people, explain to them the definition of “hate” and declare unto them: “...thus saith the Lord.”

The Sermon on the Mount: the Code of the Kingdom

Shouldn't we love our brothers? Of course. Brothers are from the same Father. The Adamic race (later called Israel, today called Caucasian) are all brothers, and we should love one another as Jesus commanded. Jews, however, have a different father – don't they? (John 8:44) Besides, Jesus said, “For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother” (Matthew 12:50). Shouldn't we love our neighbors? Certainly. And if we obeyed God's commandment to stay segregated from other races, our neighbors would always be people of our own race. In fact, the word neighbor refers to kinsman. (See Leviticus 19:18.)

How about loving your enemy and turning the other cheek? Christ gave these instructions to His followers, His Israelite sheep, as sacred code to govern their conduct toward one another. It was given to us who are White and Christian, to keep us from fighting and quarreling with one another (the “right wing” should heed this), so we can concentrate on the job of fighting the evil people we are supposed to fight. All those instructions about loving our neighbor, returning good for evil and turning the other cheek, were given to us, so we would know how to get along with and treat our own people. But we Christians have been fighting each other, in what Spengler calls “self-annihilation wars,” precisely because we have not obeyed these very instructions.

We should remember that our Father in heaven is the most loving, kind, just and righteous being in all the universe. And we should also remember that there are certain people whom He hates and who hate Him. But this will not always be so, for He will eventually restore all things to their original condition, and all things were good in the beginning. But until that time, we must do that which has to be done.

What Should We Do?

David tells us precisely what we must do: “Let the saints be joyful in glory: let them sing aloud upon their beds. Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand; to execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people; to bring their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron; to execute upon them the judgment written: this honor have all the saints. Praise ye the Lord” (Psalm 149:5-9). Now, that is exactly what we should do! This is the mission of our race. This is why we were sent here to this earth. And these things require force – a two-edged sword. God will use us for this very purpose: “Thou art my battle axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms” (Jeremiah 51:20). Some people don't want to be a part of this, but the Scriptures declare, “Cursed be he that doeth the work of the Lord deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood” (Jeremiah 48:10).

We are to build the Kingdom of God on earth, and to rule it – by force if necessary. “This day will I begin to put the dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the nations that are under the whole heaven, who shall hear report of thee, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of thee” (Deuteronomy 2:25).

War!

War is another word which our enemies have turned into a Pavlovian trigger-word. But there are right wars and wrong wars. War against those who oppose God's Kingdom is right. Is war godlike? “The Lord is a man of war: the Lord is his name” (Exodus 15:3). “Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle” (Psalm 24:8). And remember that we were begotten in His image and likeness – and He teaches us war. “He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms” (Psalm 18:34). Is this spiritual war? No, this is an actual, physical war.

“I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed. I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet. For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me. Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me. They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto the Lord, but he answered them not. Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind: I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets” (Psalm 18: 37-42). - Obviously the heathen aren't going to like this, and they will oppose the rule of the Kingdom. “Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us” (Psalm 2:1-3). But the Lord has declared, “Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel” (Psalm 2:9).

David said to God, “For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult: and they that hate thee have lifted up the head. They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones. They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel; may be no more in remembrance. For they have consulted together with one consent: they are confederate against thee” (Psalm 83:2-5). Concerning these people David prayed thusly to Yahweh: “Let them be confounded and troubled for ever; yea, let them be put to shame, and perish: that men may know that thou, whose name alone is Yahweh, art the most high over all the earth” (Psalm 83:17-18). This should also be our constant prayer.

Listen to some of the prayers of David: “Destroy thou them, O God; let them fall by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against thee” (Psalm 5:10). “Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be: and let them know that God ruleth in Jacob (Israel) unto the ends of the earth” (Psalm 59:13). “Thou, therefore, O Lord God of Israel, awake to visit all the heathen: be not merciful to any wicked transgressors” (Psalm 59:5). “Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth: break out the great teeth of the young lions, O Lord. Let them melt away as waters which run continually: when he bendeth his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be as cut in pieces. As a snail which melteth, let every one of them pass away: like the untimely birth of a woman, that they may not see the sun” (Psalm 58:6-8).

Such should also be the prayers of our race – day and night. “The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance: he shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked” (Psalm 58:10). You see, our day is surely coming – isn't it? David makes it clear that these things are done by Israel with God's help. “Thou art my King, O God: command deliverance for Jacob (Israel). Through thee will we push down our enemies: Through thy name will we tread them under that rise up against us” (Psalm 44:4-5). “All nations compassed me about; but in the name of the Lord will I destroy them. They compassed me about; yea, they compassed me about: but in the name of the Lord I will destroy them” (Psalm 118:10-11).

Our people will see mercy, but the children of the devil (Jews – John 8:44) will be cut off. “He is ever merciful, and lendeth; and his seed is blessed. Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore. For the Lord loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked (Jews – Matthew 13:38) shall be cut off” (Psalm 37:26-28). These are the sayings of David – a man after God's own heart!

The Deeds of Righteous Men

The first recorded act of Moses, after he became an adult, was his killing of an Egyptian for “...smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren” (Exodus 2:11). - Our people should do the same today! Moses had the priests kill about 3,000 men for worshiping the golden calf. (Exodus 32:26-28.) He had a half-breed stoned to death for blaspheming the Lord's name. (Leviticus 24:10-23.) When the Canaanites took some Israelites as prisoners, Moses had the Canaanites utterly destroyed. (Numbers 21: 1-3) That is what we should do today – in North Korea and North Vietnam. Moses had some of our people beheaded for mongrelizing with Moabites. (Numbers 25:1-5). Aaron's grandson, Phinehas, ran a javelin through a White man and a Midianitish woman who were in a tent together, and God said that for so doing, Phinehas “... hath turned my wrath away from the children of Israel...” (Numbers 25: 6-11). These are the kind of deeds we should do today.

Moses led the fight against the Amalekites, Canaanites, Ammonites, Midianites and more. Listen to the instructions he gave to Israel regarding the Midianites: Arm some of yourselves unto the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and avenge the Lord of Midian... And Moses said unto them, Have ye saved all the women alive? Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam. To commit trespass against the Lord in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the Lord. Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath known man by lying with him” (Numbers 31: 1-17). This is the just punishment for mongrelization.

Moses told the Israelites that it would be imputed to them as a sin, if they did not drive all their enemies out of the land. (Numbers 32:1-23) He also told them, “But if ye will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you; then it shall come to pass, that those which ye let remain of them shall be pricks in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein ye dwell” (Numbers 33:55) – How true! But the Judeo-Christian Code people will no doubt say that Moses was too harsh, that he should have been more meek – that we should all be meek, because Jesus wants us to be meek. But the Scriptures declare that “..the man Moses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth” (Numbers 12:3). The next time someone tells you that we should be meek, tell him that that is correct, and explain to him the things which Moses did! Some people obviously have a false concept of the meaning of the word “meek”. Moses was not only meek, but he spoke face-to-face with God, he was a friend of God, he was one of only three persons mentioned in the Bible who were translated to heaven by God Himself. Moses was truly righteous. But in almost every instance he commanded Israel to kill men, women and children of other races which opposed the Kingdom of God, and we today should do the same to those who oppose the reign of Christ.

The Satanic-led Christians will say the Jesus changed all that. Well, Jesus said in reference to the latter days, “But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me” (Luke 19:27). That is our destiny! Jesus said, “Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword” (Matthew 10:34). He gives peace to Christians, “...not as the world giveth” (John 14:27) but He gives the world no peace at all. This sword which Christ is to send on earth is a literal sword. He instructed His disciples to get swords: “Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one” (Luke 22:36). In fact, Peter still had his sword with him when he was guarding Jesus in the garden at Gethsemane, and he wasn't a bit timid about using it, was he? (John 18:10). Jesus didn't tell him to register his sword with the OGPU, or any such silly nonsense, He merely explained to him that no one must interfere with the destiny of the Messiah to be crucified for His people.

You should know, however, that the situation will be quite different when Christ returns. “And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war” (Revelation 19:11). Indeed, Isaiah had prophesied, “For behold, the Lord will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire. For by fire and by his sword will the Lord plead with all flesh: and the slain of the Lord shall be many” (Isaiah 66:15-16).

Jesus said that in the latter days the children of the devil will be gathered together to be burned! (Matthew 13:30.) - We should pray to Yahweh that this day will come quickly! Jesus went into the temple and threw out the money-changers and overthrew their tables. (Matthew 21:12 and Mark 11:15.) He treated them harshly, so why shouldn't we do the same today? Some will say that Jesus should not have done that, that it wasn't nice. But Jesus was sinless, and He told us to take up His cross and follow Him. If you stand around piously, loving evil and accepting the world's evil program and being “good” to everybody, you won't have any cross to bear at all and nobody will persecute you; indeed, the world will love you. But try fighting the Jews, identify them as Satan's children, try to throw them out of anything, and then you will get a cross to bear.

What we need today are military commanders and warriors like Joshua. When the warriors of Israel took the city of Jericho, they obeyed Joshua's orders and “utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword” (Joshua 6:21). In his battle against the people of Ai, Joshua commanded his soldiers to give the people of Ai the same treatment the citizens of Jericho received, and Joshua 8:25 tells us that “..Joshua drew not his hand back, wherewith he stretched out his spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.” You will find a list of his conquests in the 12th chapter of Joshua. In one instance he lynched five kings. (Joshua 10:26) Many of today's rulers deserve a similar fate!

Joshua and Caleb were the only men of Israel over twenty years of age who were permitted to enter the Promised Land, and God accorded them that privilege, because they were the only ones who were eager to fight. (Numbers 14:6 and 14:29-30)

Ehud gained entrance to the tent of a Moabite king by sheer trickery and stabbed him to death, and then the Israelites were able to subdue the Moabites. (Judges 3:15-30) -In this day we should also be sneaking into the tents of our enemies! After giving refuge inside her tent to Sisera the captain of the Canaanites, the woman Jael covered him with a mantle, then “...took a nail of the tent, and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly unto him, and smote the nail into his temples, and fastened it into the ground: for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died” (Judges 4:21) – Now there was a good woman! And then, after she has killed the man, the Scriptures had this to say about her: “Blessed above women shall she be above women in the tent” (Judges 5:24). Then afterward, “...the hand of the children of Israel prospered, and prevailed against Jabin king of Canaan” (Judges 4:24).

Gideon slew the Midianites with only 300 men that God had selected out of 32,000, because they were the most eager to fight. (Judges 7:1-7) The Scriptures say that Gideon was a “mighty man of valor” and that “the spirit of the Lord” was with him. (Judges 6:12 and 34) Jephthah, by “the Spirit of the Lord,” subdued the Ammonites “with a very great slaughter.” (Judges 11:29-33) Samson killed 30 Philistines by “the Spirit of the Lord,” just to pay off a wager. (Judges 14:19) That will give you some idea about what God thinks of Philistines! Samson also killed many of them for killing his wife. (Judges 15:8) He slew a thousand with the jawbone of an ass – and “the Spirit of the Lord.” (Judges 15:14-15) When God gave him the strength to bring down the temple, he killed more people in one moment than he had killed in his entire life. (Judges 16:30)

What About the Judaized Christians?

This is a good time to bring up the question of proselytes. What about White people who follow after Satan's programs? Jesus said that they were "...twofold more the child of hell..." (Matthew 23:15) Moses had many of them killed. Of course Jewry advocates that Christians should adopt an attitude of toleration and liberalism, and those who accept such concepts are to that extent Judaized in their thinking.

At one time our Benjaminite brothers refused to hand over to Israel some "sons of Belial," who were degenerate perverts, to be killed. So God had the Israelites kill 25,000 Benjaminites for sheltering these perverts. Then, the men of Israel also set fire to all the cities of Benjamin they could find. (Judges 20) – No doubt those Benjaminite "liberals" loved criminals more than justice or God's laws.

The Scriptures say of Saul and David: "Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands" (I Samuel 18:7) Many additional examples could be cited, of what the Most High God expects of us, but it would be pointless to go further. Read your Bible; it is all there! And in each case, these things were done with God's help. They were done in accordance with the blueprint of our race's mission, as outlined in the 149th Psalm: with "...a two-edged sword in their hand, to execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people..." (whether the liberals like it or not), and "...the vile person shall be no more called liberal..." (Isaiah 32:5), "...to bind their kings with chains and their nobles with fetters of iron." (I can hardly wait!)

Last Time the Cup

In the days of Christ's ministry on earth, the Essenes formed an army to protect Jesus and His followers, and also to overthrow the Roman government in Judea. They chose as their leader a patriot named Barabbas, who recruited thousands of men from Galilee and Judea. He and his guerrilla troops raided the merchant caravans coming into Jerusalem, to obtain food, supplies and short Damascus swords for their army. So the Jews had a price put on the head of Barabbas and he became a "wanted man," for sedition, robbery and murder. On Palm Sunday, Barabbas and his men lined the road that Jesus took into Jerusalem, and the streets of the city, and mingled among the crowds and the Essenes. They wanted to crown Jesus King as soon as He arrived, with a crown which had already been made for Him by the Essenes. Under their robes they wore beautiful blue uniforms with golden crossed fishes across the front of their tunics, which were made of fine cloth brought from Spain in the galleys of Joseph of Arimathaea. Armed with short swords, they were ready to seize Judea by force and crown Christ as King. On hearing a signal that had been prearranged, all the soldiers of that "blue tunic" army at once dropped their robes and stood forth in splendid array, ready to fight and, if need be, to die for their Christ and their King.

At that time Jesus would not take the crown: He took the cup instead. This was a great disappointment to those who constituted that "blue tunic" army; but, upon hearing the news, they all covered themselves again with their robes and disappeared into the crowd. Then Jesus went into the temple and threw out the money-changers and said to them: "It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves" (Matthew 21:13).

Later, when a band of men and officers of the Jewish high priests and Pharisees came to arrest Jesus, Pete "...having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear...Then Jesus said unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?" (John 18:11). This was the mission and destiny of Jesus Christ at that time, and nothing was allowed to interfere! So at that particular period of time, Jesus would not allow His followers to fight, He later told Pilate, "My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews" (John 18:36).

The "blue tunic" army had disappeared and Barabbas had been captured and imprisoned, but small bands of his followers continued to fight on, protecting Christians as they had previously protected Lazarus and other followers of Christ. The man Barabbas was later released, and some time after the Crucifixion he and a number of his men accompanied Lazarus and Mary the mother of Jesus and Joseph of Arimathaea and others, to the isle of Britain, and it is recorded that he died there while fighting the Roman invaders. Except for the few who went to Britain with Barabbas, practically all of the "blue tunic" army were killed fighting the Antichrist in Palestine.

How Christianity Survived

Our people continued to fight to protect and advance Christianity and our race. The Romans and the Germanic tribes united to defeat Attila and his barbarous hordes at Chalons. “This victory is placed among the significant events of history; for it decided that the Christian Germanic races, and not the pagan Huns, should inherit the dominions of the expiring Roman Empire, and control the destiny of Europe” (P.V.N. Myers, GEN. HIST.). Charles Martel defeated the Moslems at Tours “...and committed to the issue of a single battle the fate of Christendom and the future course of history. The young civilization of Europe was thus delivered from an appalling danger such as had not threatened it since Attila” (P.V.N. Myers, GEN. HIST.).

Of Charles Martel's grandson it is said, “The conversion of the tribes of Germany was effected by Celtic, Anglo-Saxon and Frankish missionaries and the sword of Charlemagne” (P.N.V. Myers, GEN. HIST.).

Charlemagne conducted 52 military campaigns, and his Christianizing of the Germanic tribes, by the sword, saved Western Europe from the constant threat of Asiatic and Moslem invasions, by erecting a strong barrier of fighting White people in Central Europe.

Chivalry later became a military institution and its members were referred to as knights. Among other things they were pledged to protect with all their strength and skill, with their swords, the weak and defenseless as well as Christianity and the Church. We need not go into detail about the Crusades, but, basically, Christians in that day wanted to protect other Christians in the Holy Land, and they wanted to wrest control of the Holy places from the heathen. Regarding the Crusades it is said “...it should be noticed that, in checking the advance of the Turks, they postponed the fall of Constantinople for three centuries or more. This gave the young Christian civilization of Germany time to acquire sufficient strength to roll back the returning tide of Mohammedan invasion when it broke upon Europe in the 15th century” (P.V.N. Myers GEN. HIST.). And Spanish chivalry eventually drove the Moors out of Europe.

These are but a few examples of the heroic deeds that have been performed by countless numbers of our race, over the centuries, to preserve and further White Christian civilization to the present time. We should thank God that men in those days were willing to fight for what they thought was right, or we probably would not even be here today. God's will will be done – by the sword of necessary – and it usually is necessary. But this is the mission and destiny of our race, as stated in the 149th Psalm.

By the 18th century the White aristocracy had sufficiently defected from their positions of power and responsibility to enable the “mass man” to rise to power. The masses could then be manipulated by Jewry and rationalism, and today we are totally chained to Jewish rationalism. We must now debate, discuss, document and argue about even the most obvious issues, to arrive at “responsible conclusions” through “meaningful dialogue.” Hogwash! The great men of history we have been talking about had no part of such nonsense. They knew what was “right” and they just did it, and over the dead bodies of the “liberals” if need be!

The Crisis In Our Time

Spengler and Yockey both reached the conclusion that there is no hope for us, that our destruction is inevitable. They will be proven to be right unless we begin to understand the necessity of taking up the sword, whether the heathen like it or not, and believe that the Lord will fight for us. We must read again the Scriptures and really believe them: “...Ye shall not fear them: for the Lord your God he shall fight for you” (Deuteronomy 3:22). “...For the Lord is our defense; and the Holy One of Israel is our king” (Psalm 89:18). And, “...a thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee” (Psalm 91:7).

Although God is most loving, merciful, just, kind and righteous being in the whole universe, but, when necessary, He Himself destroys our enemies, such as the people in Noah's time, Sodom and Gomorrah, the first born in Egypt, Pharaoh's armies in the Red Sea, and so on. For to destroy the wicked, to save the Kingdom, is a fair exchange any day. But the question is always asked, Why does God let these evil people do these things? Well, why do we let them? We were put here on this earth, to stop them. God lets these things happen because we do, and this is our chastisement for our failure to obey our Heavenly Father. As proof of our total lack of good sense, we have allowed the very sons of Satan, the Jews, to steal our heritage as Israel, and now they are using every conceivable evil device to destroy us and our faith. But they will not succeed, for Scriptures tell us: “...no weapon that is formed against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord” (Isaiah 54:17). No longer will we “...give that which is holy unto the dogs” - nor cast our “...pearls before swine” (Matthew 7:6). When Christ returns He will find the “blue tunic” army fighting in the field – and this time the crown!